DISCLOSURE TO LIFE SETTLEMENT APPLICANT

IMPORTANT: READ THIS DISCLOSURE FORM BEFORE SIGNING ANY LIFE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT.

You should carefully read all of the following points and seek financial, insurance, tax and other advice where appropriate.

- 1. There may be possible alternatives to life settlements which exist and include, but are not limited to, accelerated benefit options that may be offered by your insurer.
- 2. Some or all of the proceeds of the life settlement may be taxable. Assistance should be sought from a professional tax advisor.
- 3. There may be an impact on the receipt of public assistance. The recipient should contact the State Department of Health Care Services and the State Department of Social Services under Section 11022 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for further information.
- 4. Proceeds from a life settlement could be subject to the claims of creditors.
- 5. Entering into a life settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certificate of a group policy to be forfeited. Assistance should be sought from a financial advisor.
- 6. Entering into a life settlement could limit the insured's ability to purchase life insurance in the future because there is a limit to how much coverage insurers will issue on one life.
- 7. The owner has the right to rescind a life settlement contract within thirty (30) days of the date it is executed by all parties and the owner has received all required disclosures, or fifteen (15) days from receipt by the owner of the proceeds of the life settlement, whichever is sooner. Rescission will only be effective if both notice of rescission is given and all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest paid on account of the provider are repaid within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded subject to repayment by the owner or the owner's estate of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the provider.
- 8. Proceeds will be sent to the owner within three (3) business days after the provider has received the insurer or group administrator's written acknowledgment that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated in accordance with the terms of the life settlement contract.

- 9. All medical, financial or personal information solicited or obtained by a provider or broker about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or significant other, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the life settlement contract between the owner and the provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two (2) years.
- 10. The insured may be contacted by either the provider or the broker or its authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status or to verify the insured's address. This contact is limited to once every three (3) months if the insured has a life expectance of more than (1) year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one (1) year or less.
- 11. The broker represents the owner, exclusively, and not the insurer or the provider or any other person, and owes a fiduciary to the owner, including a duty to act at all times according to the owner's instructions and in the best interest of the owner.
- 12. The life settlement provider company, not the owner, may compensate LIS based on a formula that is a percentage of the face value of the life insurance policy. For example, compensation for a $100,000 policy could be: 8% x $100,000 (face value) = $8,000.00.
- 13. The name, business address, and telephone number of the life settlement broker are as follows:

Life Insurance Settlements, Inc. 1500 West Cypress Creek Road, Suite 408 Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33309 Telephone number 1-866-326-5433
